ONE WHO UPHOLDS JUSTICE.
This has reference to a Chinese story, which in its moral is very similar to the story of the Chinese who were punished for their crime of murdering a man who had been falsely accused of a crime. The story is as follows: A man named Wang was accused of murdering a man named Li. Wang was a poor man, and Li was a rich man. Wang was accused of murdering Li because Li had been falsely accused of a crime. Wang was punished for his crime, and Li was released. This story is a warning to all who are accused of a crime, that they should be innocent, or they will be punished.

NOTICE IN EXPLANATION OF A Slander. THE principles of right or wrong will reveal themselves in course of time, and this saying is clearly shown in the history of China. When a man is guilty of a crime, he is always wanting, and this is what the Book of Changes has always guarded people against. If a man is guilty of a crime, he is always wanting, and this is what the Book of Changes has always guarded people against.
